TAMARIND: HOMAGE TO LITHOGRAPHY

April 29 - June 29, 1969

Checklist

All works are lithographs from the Kleiner, Bell and Company Collection of Tamarind Impressions, promised gift to The Museum of Modern Art, New York. A portion of the collection was given outright in 1967, including items 17, 40, 143, 154 and 155 in the catalogue listing below. Whereas Tamarind documentation lists sheet measurements, here, composition dimensions of prints, page sizes of books are given in inches, height precedes width. Guest-artists (*), staff-members (#), and printer-fellows (w) are distinguished from artist-fellows as indicated. Uninscribed dates are enclosed in parentheses. Each print bears the embossed marks of the Tamarind Lithography Workshop and the printer of the edition, the written designation "Tamarind Impression" or some abbreviation thereof, the artist's signature, and often the title and date. This information occasionally appears on the reverse, the Tamarind and printers' marks being stamped in ink rather than embossed, should the artist determine such inscriptions to be aesthetically intrusive on the front of the print. Photograph negative numbers are enclosed in parentheses.
